

Please do not allow those that try to benefit from our discomfort by rescinding the Indiana no call policy. These companies have no (God nor legal) right to call us whenever they want, especially after we have told them no! Take the side of individuals as this is what this country is about. The individual not the corporations.